PRESS RELEASE

April 23, 2020

Yesterday, Harris County Judge Lina Hidalgo issued an order that will take effect on Monday, April 27th requiring face coverings when in public for persons over 10 years of age. In light of this, Precinct 8 Constable Sandlin has personally purchased 4000 face masks and will be providing them free of charge to citizens in the precinct who are either unable to locate or unable to afford the purchase of masks. We will have 2 drive-thru sites at our offices in Clear Lake and Pasadena and will be distributing masks tomorrow from 10:00 am until Noon. Please note that this distribution will be limited to 1 mask per person while supplies last. No walk-ups please. Maps of the locations included.

For more information on the order, visit <https://www.readyharris.org/Stay-Home>.
